MARKET SESSION SHOWS DULLNESS

Little Interest Displayed in Trading and Prices Are Reactionary.

New York, May 27.—Pre-holiday in-fluences were evident in the stock market today and the general movements there-fore were for the major part dull and uninteresting. Attendance on the floor of the exchange and in commission houses was light. Speculative activity was extremely limited and the greater part of the two hours of trading reprepart of the two hours of trading represented an evening up of customers' and brokers' accounts over the week and over the coming holiday. The general trend of prices was reactionary, both in the industrial and in the railroad list. Prices at the opening were somewhat mixed, but before long an easier tone became evident and continued until just before the close, when there was a slight upturn which, however, did not suffice the close, when there was a slight upturn which, however, did not suffice.

before the close, when there was a slight upturn, which, however, did not suffice to retrieve the losses sustained earlier in the session. Recessions were general, although not extensive, in the so-called war order stocks, Crucible, Baldwin Locomotive and American Locomotive being among the heaviest sufferers. The motor stocks were generally lower, Stindebaker and Willys-Overland especially disniaving easier tendencies.

New York, May 2.—Peace was again in evidence in cotton circles today and caused a moderate rise in the late morning. After selling off to a net decline of seven to ten points, led by July, the market recovered all of the loss.

Reports were current that consignments of high-grade cotton were coming to New York for July contract delivery, owing to absence of demand for this cotton in the South. Late in the session the market showed a net advance of two to six points.

Port receipts for the day

the market survey applies.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 27.-Peace rumors were floating Chicago, May M. Peace numors were floating around the wheat pit today which, coupled with the rains in sections of the Southwest, frightened a goodly number of professionals out of their holdings at lower prices, and there was an uncertainty in the trade as to whether the added moisture was in sections where needed or not. Net declines for the day were 2%a2%. There was a look of cash demand at Chicago, the sales for the day being only 20,000 bushels to millers. The Seaboard reported 300,000 bushels was taken for foreign shipment.

ported 30,000 bushels was taken for foreign shipment.

Corn was %al@c lower today, and the oats market declined %al@c. The corn list displayed great weakness, in which the Mar future led. There was some demand on the declines, not only for the futures, but for the cash article as well, and 100,000 bushels of corn were sold to go to Eastern shippers.

May osta led in the weakness, as receipts were very heavy and crop reports favorable.

The weakness in the provision market during middle session was the result of liquidation sales by commission house longs, as well as some selling of foreign accounts and holdings by the smaller rackers. One of the big packers bought on the declines and private-wire houses were also buyers, clossing the market firm.

Reading Weak Feature.

In the railroad group Reading was a particularly weak feature, the stock declining 21-2 points below the previous closing price and ending the week at a figure 10-2-8 points below the high of last Tuesday. Lehigh Valley was an outstanding feature of strength among the rails and closed with an advance of 11-5 points over Friday's final prices.

There was but little in the news of the day which might be construed as having any great effect on prices.

About the only feature of the foreign exchange market was the strength of Scandanavian rates. Demand sterling advanced from 4.75-4 to 4.767-16. The reason for the drop was the reports from Stockholm that there had been a sharp rise in the dollar rate in that city. Marks and lire were fractionally higher.

The weekly bank statement continued to show a falling off in the cash holdings and the easing of the weekly bank statement continued to show a falling off in the cash holdings and the surplus reserves of the clearing house banks.

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock man-heta. First deed of trust notes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the Dis-trict of Columbia, constitute "gilt-edge" in-vestments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cor-porations for their stability, and are except from taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from 200 upward. Send for booklet, "Concerning Loans and Investments."
